WHAT WRITING MIGHT LOOK LIKE IN THE EYFS

Writing their own versions of stories.

Developing their fine motor skills daily through activities using small tools.

Writing cards and notes for a purpose e.g. for family and friends to enjoy.

Mark making and writing indoors and outdoors.

Making marks with their fingers in trays of salt, rice, glitter etc.

Writing as part of daily phonic sessions.

Writing meaningful signs and labels for classroom use.

Being active and developing gross motor skills in large scale activities

The Early Years Bubble